Bibliographie der Publikationen MALCOLM CAMERONs (1873–1954)

Abstract

Bibliographical list of 211 publications of the late MALCOLM CAMERON, outstanding specialist in Staphylinidae (Coleoptera).

Staphyliniden (Kurzflügler) gehören zu den häufigsten und artenreichsten Käfern. Wer sie studiert, kann an Malcolm CAMERON nicht vorbeigehen, der zu den „taxonomischen Vätern" dieser Insektengruppe zählt.

Die Bibliographie der über 200 Arbeiten dieses Autors soll allen Entomologen, die sich aus den verschiedensten Gründen mit Staphyliniden beschäftigen, ihre dornenreiche Arbeit erleichtern helfen. – Vielfach hat CAMERON für seine Publikationen ähnliche Titel gewählt oder Arbeiten in Fortsetzungen publiziert: man ersehe das aus der folgenden Liste.

Noch einige kurze Daten zu M. CAMERON: Geboren 1873, Beruf: Arzt, in dieser Tätigkeit nahm er als Marinearzt am Burenkrieg, am I. Weltkrieg, am (ersten) Falklandkrieg und am Ostafrikafeldzug teil, er hatte Gelegenheit, während seiner dienstlichen Reisen an zahlreichen Stationen zu sammeln und brachte eine Kollektion von 16 000 Käfern zusammen, die er 1936 dem British Museum, Natural History, übergab. Als Surgeon-Commander ging er 1920 in Pension und widmete den Rest seines Lebens den Staphyliniden: zuerst hielt er sich am Indian Forest Research Institute in Dehra Dun auf, wenige Jahre später mußte er krankheitshalber in die Schweiz übersiedeln und lebte dann seit 1925 wieder in London.

Sein Hauptwerk bildet die Bearbeitung der Staphyliniden in der Reihe „Fauna of British India . . .": 5 Bände mit über 1800 Seiten, ein Standardwerk, das jüngst nachgedruckt wurde und nun wieder erhältlich ist. CAMERON starb im Alter von 81 Jahren, er hinterließ seine Staphyliniden dem British Museum, Natural History, London, die Sammlung enthält etwa 55 000 Exemplare in weit über 10 000 Arten, davon mehr als 2000 Holotypen. Es gibt wohl keinen zeitgenössischen Staphylinidenforscher, der nicht Material dieser bedeutenden Sammlung untersucht hätte.

Kurze, nahezu identische Nachrufe auf M. CAMERON sind erschienen in Entomologist's mon. Mag. 90: 290 (1954), Proc. R. ent. Soc. Lond. (C) 19: 68 (1955) und in Publcoes cult. Co. Diam. Angola 48: 11 f. (1959).
