We learned that the species we received as seeds and have been working with is not Physalis pruinosa. It is Physalis grisea. Wherever the terms Physalis pruinosa and P. pruinosa were mentioned in the article (including in its title), they should have read Physalis grisea and P. grisea, resp.

The original article has been corrected, and wherever it reads Physalis grisea or P. risea now, it first read Physalis pruinosa and P. pruinosa, resp.
